The Road to High Beech, Epping Forest. The roads to High Beech (or High Beach, as it should be called) are many, and one and all are beautiful. There is the broad Green Ride, or the Ranger's Road and the Red Path, or the Forest Path by Debden Slade skirting the British Camp, or there is the road shown here which passes by St. Thomas's Quarters and the Keepers' Cottages, which stand in a cleared space facing the forest.
